JAPANESE STUDENTS STRIKE WHEN TEACHERS ARE ASKED TO QUIT

(Special cable to the Hawaii Shinto.) TOKIO, Japan, Jan. 19.—Further trouble has invaded the precincts of the Imperial university at Kyoto through President Sawayama's having demanded the resignations of the several professors of law. Upon the professors tendering their resignations, the law students immediately went on a strike and refused to return to the university. The minister of education is trying to bring the matter to an end through arbitration, but the attitude of both professors and students toward the president is strong and there is little hope for an early settlement.

JAIL BREAKERS MURDER VISITORS AND ESCAPE

MALESTER, Okla., Jan. 19.—John R. Thomas, former United States district judge, once a congressman from Illinois and father of Captain John R. Thomas, Jr., stationed with the 1st infantry at Schofield Barracks, Oahu, was one of seven who lost their lives in a prison break from the state penitentiary here today.

Seven men were shot to death and three were wounded when a trio of desperate convicts made a dash for liberty.

The prisoners directed their fire toward a party of visitors in the prison yard and the first to fall beneath their murderous volleys was Judge Thomas. He was visiting at the prison on business at the time.

Fighting their way through the convicts captured a telephone girl and using her as a shield made their way outside the prison walls and to freedom. There they seized the warden's horse and buggy and started toward the hills.

Among the others killed in the prison break were the assistant deputy warden, the superintendent of the bureau of identification and one guard.

Captain John R. Thomas, son of the jurist who lost his life at McAlester yesterday, is in command of Company E, 1st Infantry.

ALASKA RAILROAD BILL MEETS SNAG

WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 19.—A bill proposing the construction of a railroad in Alaska by the government met with its first opposition in the senate today when Senator Porter J. McCumber, Republican, of North Dakota attacked the measure.

The measure has strong support from Alaska. A number of delegations from that territory appeared in Washington during the last session urging its passage. Hearings were granted by the committee on territories, of which United States Senator Pittman of Nevada is chairman. Pittman was formerly a resident of Alaska.

CREW IRONS CRAZY CAPTAIN.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 19.—The British ship Philadelphia, Captain Lawrence, bound from Portland, Ore., with a cargo consigned to Queens-town, put into port here today with the captain in irons. The skipper was overpowered by the crew after he had, in a drunken frenzy, threatened their lives and endangered the safety of the ship. The crew and mates of the ship allege that Captain Lawrence was intoxicated and lost his reason during a storm. The vessel will remain here until arrangements are made with the owners in Queens-town to secure another commander. Captain Lawrence is being held in custody for treatment and pending an investigation.

KILLS WIFE TO MARRY STEP-DAUGHTER

GALSBURG, Ill., Jan. 19.—Robert Higgins, under arrest on suspicion of having murdered his wife, made a full confession today. Mrs. Higgins was found murdered in her home at New Henderson, January 5. In admitting the murder yesterday, Higgins stated that he was in love with his step-daughter, and murdered his wife in order to marry the girl, Julia Flake. The girl is 15 years old.

WANTS FOREIGN COMPETITION.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 19.—Secretary of the Navy Daniels today announced that he favors foreign competition in the building of warships for the United States navy. Not only would this result in a great saving in the present cost of naval construction, he stated, but with the possibility of foreign competition even better workmanship would be assured on the vessels than is now possible.

INDIANS NOW FIGHT HUERTA.

CITY OF MEXICO, Jan. 19.—The Serrano Indians, whose stubborn resistance the iron-handed Porfirio Diaz could never break down, have revolted and are reported to have taken the warpath against the Huerta troops. Their revolt was caused by Huerta's action in discontinuing a subsidy.
